Mr. Joseph L. Harsh

Dear Mr. Harsh:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to express his thanks for your letter of 12 July 1960.

Your kind remarks regarding Mr. Dulles and the work of the Central Intelligence Agency are appreciated. However, your letter covers a subject that is outside our area of activity. It is one that might be of interest to the USIA, 1776 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington 25, D.C. and it is recommended that you consider writing to the Director of USIA.

Thank you for your letter.

Sincerely,

15/
Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
